

Karen Anderson is a wonderful vocal instructor and an equally wonderful person. Her stunningly beautiful voice has earned her a performing career of longevity and success. She brings a wide breadth of experience and knowledge to those who study with her. Karen gives her all to each student in a warm, positive and professional way.

I began my studies with Karen during my sophomore year of high school (2011) and it was one of the best decisions I made for my musical journey. I immediately felt comfortable and like Karen truly cared about my progress.

Through her music selections, technical training and expertise in musicality, I won vocal competitions and earned a scholarship to study music in college. She went above and beyond helping me find the right fit for college and ensured that I was set up for success. I graduated Magna Cum Laude with my B.M. in Vocal Performance from San Diego State University in 2018. I currently live in San Diego and sing professionally in classical and non-classical settings.

After all these years, Karen is still someone that I trust completely for guidance and virtual lessons (since we live in different states). She helped me find my true voice and found pieces that showcased my instrument at a new level. Some of the many things I've learned from Karen include professionalism, technique, stage presence, confidence, a true appreciation of classical music and a love of performing in foreign languages.

I have watched Karen help singers of all ages, voice types, and at all stages of development — she really knows her stuff. She brought the best out of me and prepared me to thrive in this profession. If you have the chance to work with Karen, I highly recommend it.

Sincerely,

Kiana Mason
